“ Mr. Kelley was a fine, cultured Gentleman. I met him as a kid over 50 years ago and one of the first things he taught us kids was to not slam the doors when exiting his Mercedes. He also taught me to eat and enjoy Steak Tartar, essentially by not telling me what I had eaten until I had finished. Surprise!! To this day I still enjoy it (See photo of my recent dinner of Steak Tartar with Quail Egg and Toast Points in his honor).

My thoughts to his lovely wife Mrs. Kelley (Wally) and to his great sons of which he was deservedly proud.

I remember, Bryant was on my baseball team, the Bears. We played at Peter Pan Park. I remember Mr Kelly was very supportive of all of his sons. Driving them and friends to different activities. My Dad took Bryant, Carla Jones, and Carol Green and I to the circus and Mr Kelly picked us up. I remember he was friendly to us all. I do remember he smoked a pipe and his Mercedes. I want to send my condolences to the family. May God comfort and strengthen you guys.

“ If a life lived is measured in some small extent by the family one leaves behind, Martin lead an amazing life. I wish I had known him personally, but the love his children had for him was and remains overwhelming.

“ I feel so honoured to be part of this family, and to have had Martin as an "Opa" for Jackson, Chloe, and Frida. He took so much pleasure in children, and was a kind and generous soul.

A few years ago, sometime around mom's 80th birthday, I asked mom and dad what their favorite song was while they were courting, and they both said in unison "Sweet and Lovely." I found a beautiful vintage recording of it and made this video compiled from family photos. In it, you'll see Mom and Dad, Harry, Bryant, Eric, Grandmother Olpp, and me (Greg).

*What an amazing and lovely video, thank you so much for sharing with all of us. Bryant was one of my first boyfriends and will always hold that very special place in my heart. Because of this I was "exposed" lol to the Kelley men! What a hand*some and hand*full group of men. I'll never forget the love and laughter that would always surround anyone invited into the group. I am sorry for your loss but know you have more than a lifetime of memories, wonderful memories. Love you always Bryant! Vicki Mabry Huff*
