“ You were an amazing father whom I will never stop missing. Your love was endless and unconditional. Your smile warming and contagious. Your heart and faith bigger than this life. I still don't know how to keep moving forward without you here but I won't stop trying because I know it would break your heart to see any of us just give up. I hope you knew how much I appreciated all the sacrifices you made for us and the hours you gave up working to provide all that we needed. I feel I didn't tell you enough how proud I was to have you as my dad. I know I did tell you this many times but it is so true, you were the best dad a girl could ever have. Through your faith and love you showed me how to live. Your life and faith were such a testimony to Christ, you definitely lived and died unto the Lord. I truly wish my babies could have had more time with you. My precious dad, I can hardly wait until the day I get to see you again. I will miss you for the rest of my life here and I will love you for all eternity. ~ Your baby girl

“ Oh my God, I couldn't stop the tears falling from my eyes, after learning that such a wonderful family man was taken from us all. Anyone who ever met this man, knew there was/is nothing Gene wouldn't do for his family or ANYONE he cared for; or even a stranger/someone he'd never met, Gene would give the shirt off his own back, even if it meant him being cold himself.

"GENE, I've NEVER MET A MAN THAT WAS SO MUCH LIKE MY OWN FATHER. JUST ONE OF MANY, MANY REASONS YOU'LL ALWAYS BE IN MY THOUGHTS & HEART!" YOU'LL ALWAYS BE WITH US IN MIND, HEART, & SPIRIT!"

“ My heart goes out to the family of Gene. He was always one man that I would stop and talk to a few times a week as I walk by the McElwaney home. One thing I can say is Mr. Gene would keep you laughing boy he was a trip and I want the family to know that the Milner family is here if there is anything we can do. God bless you Mr. Gene you will be missed.
