Tribute Wall

“ I met Mary many years ago in our church’s Bible study group. We warmed up to each other as close friends almost immediately. We loved going out for lunch together, shopping and typical girl stuff. Even thru all of her suffering battling cancer, she remained fiercely independent and determined to get well. Gone way too soon I will forever cherish the unique friendship we had and the love we were able to share with one another. My heart goes out to her family, she loved all of you immensely and looked forward to family events. She will be missed greatly... I’m already missing not being able to text her late at nite with memes and funny political posts. Rest easy Mary, I’m grateful you’re no longer in pain and in a much better place! Until we meet again... ❤️
