“ Scott and I wanted to share a joint memory. Grandma, Grandpa, my Dad, my mom, and my brother flew to Oregon for my graduation from Oregon State University. While the family was in Oregon, Scott and I arranged for my family to meet his parents, for the first time. Our families met at a restaurant named Tony Roma's in Beaverton, Oregon. My brother and Grandpa were spitting straw paper, across the table, at each other. Grandma caught them misbehaving. Scott and I were about to crawl under the table from embarrassment, when Grandma turns to Grandpa, and says "Mack, I thought I told you on the airplane to be civil." Grandpa turns to her and says "You told me to be civil. You didn't say anything about me behaving myself." The conversation made both sides of the family laugh, and that is when Scott and I realized that the family's would get along just fine.

Grandma loved barbecue as much as Scott's mother. In fact, anytime that Grandma was mentioned, Scott's mother, Arlene, would share the memory of the family's eating together at Tony Roma's. Arlene would share the memory about how Grandma enjoyed the ribs so much that she would be up to her elbows in barbecue sauce. My in-laws were very fond of Grandma and Grandpa. I also know that Grandma was very grateful that I had such wonderful in-laws, too.

It was such an honor to be one of the grandchildren of Mary Jim McGuirt. My husband was honored to be, as he would say a Grandson-in-law, of Mary Jim McGuirt, too.

I pray that the Lord will grant the same peace to the family, that He has provided me since my Dad passed away, the peace in knowing that God knows exactly where she is likes he knows exactly where Grandpa and my Dad are.

We love you Grandma, and I pray that God will allow you to give my Dad and Grandpa a hug. Also, if God allows, I pray that God will allow Grandma to give my Dad and Grandpa a hug for me, too.

*Love to the family,
Mindy and Scott Hill*

“ I have such sweet memories of Mary Jim as our next door neighbor. She was always ALWAYS sweet! I am so happy we were able to reconnect via Facebook over the last few years. I know without a doubt we will see each other again. My prayers are now with you, her children, to learn how to live without her. Until we meet again precious friend....Momo
