“ my dear precious mary. the days we spent together laughing and talking will always be a special memory for me. you were the most generous and kind person I was blessed to know. all of the shared memories of your family and mine that kept us laughing and talking will keep your memory close. when I told you about the time bonnie , joe, bill and I were decorating the church and I was telling joe to swag the garland. billy got so tickled at joe and he started calling me blue eyes/ I told you I thought my eyes were green , but you said I was blind they are blue..the day I stopped to see what was going on as Teresa could not call me ( my phone was out) was the most hurtful surprise to find out the we had lost you. I love you and will miss you . marsha
