“ Mike: I haven't seen you for a decade, but it doesn't feel like that long. I miss you. You taught me valuable lessons of confidence and toughness I am quite sure to have missed out without of life journey together. From our first meeting, where I was launched out of Curtis's jetboat as quickly as you one armed threw me back in (without landing completely in the water, mind you), to the mind numbing respect you showed toward me (a skinny, cocky vegetarian), and I you, whether warranted or not, you have been my dear friend. I will always have you in my heart. With love and tears, Jake
