

Mary Jo Stephens

February 15, 1938 - July 5, 2023

Mary Jo Stephens passed away peacefully in her home in Union City on Wednesday afternoon, July 5, 2023. Mrs. Stephens was born Mary Jo Burriss on February 15, 1938 to T. A. and Irene Burriss in Cleveland, Tn. She later moved to Atlanta where she met her late husband William Stephens. They were married on July 22, 1957 and remained married for over 60 years until he passed away in January 2018.

Our mom touched countless lives through her kindness and always cheerful attitude and of course, her unmatched cooking. She was our mom, our Gommie and our Mama Stephens.

Our mom is survived by a sister, Lynda Taylor and a son and daughter in law, Bruce and Cathryn Stephens; a daughter and son in law, Bill and Aneta Harris and 5 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren.

Mary Jo's life will be celebrated with music and fellowship on Saturday July 15, 2023 with visitation starting at 1:00 pm until service time at 2:00 pm at Lester Road Christian Church at 3900 Newton Dr. In Fairburn, Ga. where she was a member.

“ I will never forget the love and support from both MaryJo and Bill through my cancer battle, or the incredible extent of hospitality they displayed as they opened their home often for Mary Jo’s great cooking, fun fellowship and entertainment. I know she’s enjoying a great homecoming. A friend that I look forward to seeing again. God’s peace and love to the family. You were so blessed to have such an amazing mother, grandmother, and sibling in your family.
