“ Dear Mary Lynn, I'm so sorry that my own ill health kept me from attending your mother's service. I wanted to be there to offer what support and love I could to you and your dad. The wonderful Parrott descendant reunions that we have had through the years gave me a chance to know your sweet mother. Though I couldn't be there, you and your father have been in my thoughts constantly. Please accept my deepest sympathy. Joyce

“ Mary Lynn,
I am so sorry for your loss. I pray the Lord will surround you with comfort and love during this time. Traci was saying your son was trying to get here. I hope he made it. Take care and let us know if there is anything we can do.

“ My brother just saw Cousin Elizabeth's obituary in the paper. I am so sorry for your loss. My mother, Maxine James Collins, loved all her James relatives. I still recall when Elizabeth's mother, Cousin Lynn, came to visit us in DeSoto along with several of her cousins.
