

Mary Gay Amoss Tucker

July 20, 1930 - August 18, 2021

Mrs. Mary Gay Amoss Tucker of Fairburn went to be with the Lord on August 18, 2021. Mary Gay attended Campbell of Fairburn, and received a degree in education from Bessie Tift College in Forsyth. She returned to Fairburn to teach second grade at MP Word Elementary for many years. When her family grew, she chose to stay at home with her children. Her love for teaching children extended to First Baptist of Fairburn where she was very instrumental in leading the "Sunbeam Band" which was the Womens Missionary Union's program for children. Mary Gay served as the president for the WMU for many years. Missions were her passion, both foreign and home missions, honoring her obedience to our Lord's Great Commission. Mary Gay and Ed served the church and community of Fairburn, that they so dearly loved, for the better part of 62 years. After Ed went home to be with the Lord in 2015, Mary Gay moved to Auburn, AL with her faithful Yorkie Terrier Buddy, to be near her beloved daughter. She lived out her final years with newly discovered friends, under Beth's wonderful care and supervision until Her Lord called her home. Mrs. Tucker was preceded in death by her husband of 62 years, Dr Ed Tucker and is survived by her daughter Beth Sprayberry and her husband, Scott of Auburn, AL; sons, John Tucker and his wife, Loretta of Williamson, GA; and Dan Tucker and his wife, Ashli of Fairburn; grandchildren, Mary Grace Sprayberry, Tucker Sprayberry, Ellie Sprayberry, Hutch Sprayberry, Michelle (Tommy) Allen; Cody (Sydney) Tucker, Austin (Ginny) Tucker, Mary Kate Tucker and great grandson, Tucker Allen.

“ I was saddened to learn of Mary Gay's passing. She was such a beautiful, sweet and gentle Lady. So sorry I was unable to attend her funeral. No matter how long your parents are with you it is always difficult to lose them. Hold on to all your warm memories and recall them often.

“ So sorry for your loss. Mary Gay was one of the most kind and loving true Christian ladies I have ever known. She loved missions: doing and helping others. She loved her children and grandchildren and proud of each one. Enjoy the sweet memories, they will bring peace and joy in the days to come. She will be missed but you will always have her love in your heart. Butch and Brenda Yert

“ I met Ed and Mary Gay after they noticed the blue ribbon on our mailbox when my son was born. We lived across the street. She brought him a cute little sailor outfit. Such a sweet, gracious lady. And now she is with Ed. RIP Mrs. Mary Gay.
