“ Mary Lynn was a fantastic example of a southern belle, and a very funny and elegant lady. She and Bob were family friends and then she became a magistrate and I was a Deputy Sheriff. I found her to be very fair and firm. She will be missed. Y many and my prayers go out to Bob and her family. May she Rest In Peace.

“Mary Lynn was a dear friend of my family when we lived in Fauquier County, Warrenton, Va. I always considered to her a lifelong friend. I have some sweet memories of her and Bob, when my husband and I went with her to Oklahoma City to see Bob. We had a great time.
