Matthew Christopher Littlefield

May 16, 1985 – March 2, 2024

“THE” Best Friend

On May 16th, 1985, Matt came into the world like a lion: a leader from the start. He would need that boldness, because as he would often reflect, he was born right into a “sea of estrogen.” Raised in a home with two hovering older sisters, a doting mother and grandmother, it was Matt and Dad against the tide.

There is a clear throughline to Matt’s life – his RELATIONSHIPS. The bonds he forged with his smothering older sisters stand rock solid to this day. He was also, like a lion, SO PROUD. Proud to be his parents’ son. His home was the high school hangout because Matt liked being with his family. He loved his mother with unwavering allegiance, a bond that was so honest, SO loving. Matt’s father was his hero. Like Mickey, Matt sparkled. Like Mickey, Matt built friendships DEEP and WIDE. Mickey was a groomsman 11 times. For Matt, that number is 19.

What for some is a secondary part of life was PRIMARY for Matt – FRIENDSHIP. He built bonds as a Ghostbusters loving, mountain-climbing little boy. He built friendships as a two-a-day receiver on Sandy Creek’s standout football team. He built friendships at the University of Georgia – where he received a degree and dozens more forever friends. Matt also built bonds at the Georgia State Capitol where he proudly served as a registered lobbyist. It was there that his knack for truly seeing and hearing people collided with his work, as he proudly went on to help lead an Ag Commissioner and two US Senate campaigns.

Matt's greatest accomplishment will forever be his relationships. His soul was a deep well of humor and empathy. Matt was there on the hard days; Matt was there on the fun days. He connected with SO many SO deeply. And most recently he built bonds with his beloved five-year-old niece and one-year-old nephew. He is known as Uncle Matt to dozens, because to Matt, friends and family were interchangeable.

Matt is now in the heavenly company of his hero, who left this earth seven years ago. Matt is, at last, reunited with Mickey.

And as his immeasurably proud mother, Margaret, sisters Susan-Elizabeth and Victoria and niece Mickey-Reese will forever continue to dote, his beloved brother-in-law Philip and nephew Parker (who also happens to have a lion's heart) will now navigate that estrogen sea. Matt also leaves his treasured Uncle Don and Aunt Judy and cousins Beth, Jenny and Donnie, Madi and their families, who he held so dear.

As his family, we KNOW this grief is shared by SO SO many. As one lifelong pal of Matt reminded us, Matt Littlefield was THE best friend.

“ Ole Matt. I'm so sorry my man. I enjoyed talking with you at the Capitol and remember when Mo and Haliburton first introduced us, we both said -Matt - you've got a cool name- Always smiling, always striving. Have a good time with your dad up there and if you come across my old man, Johnny Campbell, I'm sure he'd love to talk about the Dawgs. You're story isn't over my friend;

“ The last time I saw Matt, several months back, we talked of how busy life can get. How quickly time seems to pass now that we’re older. We talked of needing to catch back up soon, and relived some hilarious memories (that we were both grateful weren’t captured forever on the World Wide Web) from our youth, as though no time between us had passed. That’s the kind of person that Matt was. The kind of friend that Matt was. It didn’t matter how much time had passed between when you’d seen each other last, Matt had this gift that seemed to transcend time, and place you back together as though you’d never been apart. What an amazing blessing those of us that knew Matt had (whether in passing, as an acquaintance, or as a friend), and what an amazing gift to know that Matt’s with his hero once more. Love and miss you, Buddy!

“ I first met Matt in 2014 through Mickey. Mickey was my insurance broker as I was investing in GA. I didn't know Matt very well but he was definitely more than my insurance broker. We kept in touch after he'd left the business. I last spoke to him about a year ago, just to reconnect. I'll always remember that classic Matt Littlefield smile and laugh. He had a genuine and sincere character. I was seriously shaken to hear of his passing. We will be praying for you, Matt. God Bless.
