“ Please accept our condolences on the passing of Miss Mattie. We knew her when she was attending Northside, and the thing we remember most was her smile. She seemed to always have a smile on her face and a kind word to share. All in Heaven will now be able to enjoy her infectious smile.

“ Ms. Armstrong, we really enjoyed hearing you sing along at the senior center in Ashford on Thursday mornings at the singalong. What a beautiful voice you had! Now you are singing in the "angel choir" in heaven. You will be sorely missed by all! Thanks for your unselfish generosity in our time of need. Love and prayers, Herb and Lanelle Boleyn and Lynn.

“ The most wonderful mom a son could ever have. Memories to many to share, but mom you always knew I love you and will miss you until we meet again.

There are thousands and thousands of things I owe you for here are just a few.

I owe you for making me believe your favorite part of the chicken was the neck and back, so we could have the good parts.

I owe you for all the home cooked meals you made even when you were to sick to cook.

I owe you for all the times you fixed my scrapes and tried to mend my broken heart.

I owe you for all the prayers you prayed for me.

I owe you for so many things, one of which is the man I am today.

I owe you most for being a praying mother that was always sure her children were in church.

I owe you for the shirts you made me out of chicken feed sacks. I am sure I never told you but I felt like the richest kid in the world because I knew that you sewed each stitch with love. Oh but what I would give to have one of those to wear right now.

Mom I know you are with our Lord rejoicing in his love. That does not make me miss you but it does give me peace knowing you are home to never suffer any more.

LOVE you MOM.
