Beautiful service!!!! So glad we could attend via webcast from Michigan! We loved Melda dearly!! and send our love to all the kids and grandkids and greats also and to dear dear Doc!! ❤️ we love you all! What an impact Doc, Dolly, Melda and Ray had in so many lives including mine! I found my tears pouring throughout the last hr! To again hear the stories, i could never hear them too much! What a testimony of God's Amazing grace and how He brought these 2 families round full circle whilst having them lead all of us to knowing and loving Him more! Just so cool!! What a wonderful testimony to go home to the Lord with! 💕

“ To family, friends, and fellow saints,

I have gotten to know both Melda and Doc for the past three years and have had several conversations with both.

I remember one time after a conversation that I had with Melda thinking about what a godly virtuous woman she was!

I also took delight in how she loved feeding peanut to the squirrels that hung out at her bird feeders - she told me that they would come up to the back door to take one out of her hand, I guess that even the squirrels trusted her...

At other times while at Church services I would tell her near weekly that she looks like she just stepped out of a beauty magazine.

The funniest thing that I remember concerning her was me helping her out of the Sunday school classroom approximately just a month or so ago. I was basically forced to carry her purse as to lighten her load as she made tracks into the Church service. Talk about being on stage with services already underway with me carrying her purse out in front of the congregation lol ! I did stop with purse in hand and told pastor Alan that this would be the first and only time that he will ever see me carrying a purse...he laughed!

I am confident that Melda is now beholding the exceededingly great glory of the Lord God "Who was, and Is, and Is to come...the ALMIGHTY, and our Lord Jesus Christ "!

We the saints will Soon Enough see our beloved sister in Christ, take sweet comfort in this fixed reality!

For the saints to live is Christ Jesus, and to die is GAIN!

“ Melda was a wonderful lady. So kind and loving.

I've often joked that so many of my "family" recipes are actually hers that it felt like she was already part of my family before she married my grandfather. The world is a darker place for having lost her
