

Merelyn Margaret Boyd Holbrook

May 29, 1951 - December 10, 2020

Merelyn Margaret Boyd Holbrook age 69, lovingly known as “Mom” to everyone, gained her heavenly wings on Thursday, December 10th 2020 at 2:34 am.

Mom was born May 29, 1951 to the late Merrill and Evelyn Boyd in Fairburn, GA. Her love of country living followed her all through her life as she became well known for her craft and painting skills. Mom had a love of plants and gardens as well but she will always be known for her true love of Christmas. Her art of turning ordinary items into beautiful decorations will be her legacy for years to come.

In addition to her parents Mom was preceded in death by Sister, Josephine Sewell, and Great-granddaughter, Alexis Riley Thompson. She is survived by her son, Marty McHugh, daughter-n-law, Kimberly McHugh of Newnan, GA, Grandson, Caleb McHugh and granddaughter, Jordan (Allen) Thompson. Her daughter, Malina Mooney and her husband Jason of Senoia, GA.

Granddaughters, Kristen Mooney, Shelby (Josh) Arrington, and Destiny Mooney. Her brothers, Jerry (Inell) Boyd of Tyrone, GA, Brad (Pam) Boyd of Jonesboro, GA, Randy (Becky) Boyd of Zebulon GA, along with 6 great-grandchildren, and many cousins, nieces and nephews.

Mom was a member of Trinity Church in Sharpsburg, GA and her love for Christ shown through her every day of her life. She praised him with her whole heart and passed that same faith to anyone she was around. She touched many lives through her journey here on earth.

The family would like to thank Brightmoor Hospice for their thoughtful and tender care of Merelyn as she made her transition from this life to her new home in Heaven.

In lieu of flowers those desiring may make donations to Toys for Tots, https://www.toysfortots.org/donate/forms/simple/Default.aspx?sl_tc=homepage

“ I was so sad to hear about Merelyn. I was a friend of hers from Trinity Church. We had many talks together, some lunches and I took her to see the Rockettes a few years ago. I also have a beautiful Christmas creation she made from an egg carton and she blessed me one year with a pair of Christmas leggings. :) We both loved the special time of Christmas each year. I am sorry I was not able to attend her service yesterday but I was thinking about her and her family during that time and hope you can all be comforted by the unequalled hope found in knowing Jesus as you cherish the memories of the beautiful life of Merelyn. May God bless you all, Beverly Mitchell
