“ We will miss Mildred when we visit Nancy and Bernard. She was devoted to her family and friends, even to Nancy's dogs! Her warm smile will be missed. I thank Mildred for the best friend I've ever had. Her spirit will continue to shine through all the lives she blessed.

We love you Nan & family
You are in our thoughts and prayers

“ Knowing Mildred was to just love her. You could hear that wonderful laugh of hers across the room and you would find yourself laughing right along with her. She was an amazing woman. I am grateful to have known her and will miss her terribly. My sincere condolences to all of you.

*May God bless you and keep you,

“ My sincere condolence to the McEntire family. Moms could never be replaced but your mother will live on through you and your children. Rejoice for now she is now in a better place in the arms of the LORD and at peace.

May God bless and comfort you in this time of sorrow.

“ I am very sorry for the loss of your mother. Unfortunately, I did not have the opportunity to work with Mildred long at Saint Joseph's but in the short time I did work with her, one of the most outstanding traits she possessed was a great sense of humor and a lovely spirit. I really like and enjoyed Mildred's company during our office lunch get-togethers. I admired Mildred's strength, strong character, humor and adventurous spirit. I can only hope to be so well rounded, well adjusted and happy as she was during my future retired years. Mildred brought much joy into all our lives. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ My heart is so heavy after learning of Mildred's passing. As Joan said, she was truly one of the most beautiful souls God ever sent to earth. When I moved to Atlanta in 1998, several ladies at Saint Joseph's really took me under their wings and made me feel at home from the get-go. Mildred was certainly one of those. I'll never forget her infectious laugh and her huge smile. I have a picture of the two of us from when the girls at Saint Joseph's gave us a joint birthday celebration one year - she's just radiant and beaming in the photograph and that's how I'll always remember her. God bless and keep your family as you go through this time of grief. I wish you all peace.
