“ Cindy and David: I am so sorry about the death of your grandmother. Life has been difficult for her for a long time. She is now in a better place. You have taken such good care of her through the years as well as your Papaw. You have been a real blessing to your grandparents. Much love to you both. Aunt Ruth

“ I am so sad at the passing of my great Aunt Mildred. She was one of the sweetest people ever. I know she's with all those gone on before her but she will be missed by the rest of us until we are all together again.

“ I am truly sorry for your loss. Death is never easy for any of us to cope with. God, however, promises that soon he will completely wipe out all pain, suffering and death for good. As we await these promises, may the many wonderful memories bring you comfort in the days ahead.-Revelation 21:4, Isaiah 25:8.
