“ My heart goes out to each of you during this time. Sarge was such a sincere man and he made whomever he was interacting with feel special. When I told Sam yesterday that he had passed, he said something I think Sarge would have liked. Sam said, "Wasn't he a big Oklahoma fan?" Boomer Sooner! He made an impact on all who came in contact with him.

Blessings!

“ Cliff, Britt, Ronnie and Sissy, saying goodbye is always hard, especially to someone like your Dad. He was always cheerful, encouraging and helpful to all he met, and he never met a stranger. He could meet someone for the first time and to an unknowing observer they would think it was two old friends meeting. My grandchildren never saw Sarge but a couple of times in their life and had not seen him in several years, but when my daughter told them Sarge had died, much to my daughter's surprise they knew exactly who she was speaking of. If you had ever met him you remembered him. I can't say enough about all the times I was treated just as his own child and he considered all younger than him his "honey child". I have never met a man that was more patient with his wife when she was sick and getting ready to leave him and this world to be with her Jesus. You're with them now Sarge and my soul rejoices! and remember when we know Jesus, we NEVER die alone! We die in the presence of the One who can comfort us more than any other. None of you will ever know how much Sarge's kindness meant to me and how glad I am I now know all of you. Love and peace to you all. Lynne
