Nancy possessed a beautiful smile and heart. I knew her and Jean as a young girl. Me and my sisters loved her and Jean. I stand on the promise that I will see my loved ones again.

I'll miss my dear friend! We've had so many fun times! We loved to get ready to go out on Friday nights together! We made it a point to have our Friday nights opened for US! Picking out the perfect outfit (which often times included white knee high boots, short dresses, or bell bottoms! We laughed and giggled like two 21 year old girls would do, in anticipation of breaking several hearts, in just one evening! While working hard getting our hair and ymakeup just so!! Nancy was always a trend setter when it came to the latest cloths, styles, hair and makeup! When we got into my '65 Corvette, you would know we had arrived! We spent countless hours just cruising, with the top down, through our old stomping grounds, Grant Park! I can still remember laughing, with the radio loudly blasting our favorite songs. Nancy would know every word! That was kind of annoying, since I didn't! She had every new album that hit the record stores! Her vinyl collection was amazing to say the least! We were so carefree and full of life! My Dad would grill something scrumptious for us, but we were so excited to start our evening, we could barely eat! Nancy was always welcomed at my house! She adored both of my parents, but always commented on how special he was to her. His contagious laughter, and kidding around with her, let her know she was special to our family. As life sometimes takes us in different areas, but we always stayed connected. When her husband James died, I knew she was heartbroken. I wanted to get her out of the house. It was years of her breaking down, many tears, kisses, and big hugs to follow. I invited her to go Karioking with me one night, and it was ON! Nancy had such a beautiful voice (again annoying), as my friend Roberta and I sounded like two frogs making sounds akin to a mating ritual!! I know she had a good laugh at our expense, but always wouldn't have it any other way but to have us standing right beside her! I'm sorry I threw you under the bus Roberta (not really, you knew it to be true). I'll miss our trips together, we were always afraid SECURITY was going to come and ask us to quiet done! Oh the fun we had at night on the balcony! Nancy was a "snorter", and I loved to see how many I could get out of her each night! We think we have forever, I had invited Nancy to go to the beach next June. Never thinking she would not be with us. She has survived so much. I told her I thought she was a real trooper! Nancy was a caring, kind, generous person. She loved her family unconditionally. The mention of her grandchildren made her glow with pride and love! Rest In Peace my forever friend. Well done my good and faithful servant! It comforts me to know you're united with all your love ones that have gone before you. You have taken a part of my heart with you. Until we meet again, I love you Nancy....
