What a beautiful, thoughtful, funny and touching Service for Miss Pam. I loved every word said, every heartfelt message and every joke made by family and of course, our Sweet Miss Pam. I will always remember her and the moments we shared laughing, joking, telling stories and sharing recipes. I swear, she made the best beef barley soup I have ever had my entire life and I'm 51. Pam, you can now be in peace, praising with the Lord and other loved ones. Know you will be missed but never, ever forgotten and you will ALWAYS hold a permanent residence within my heart. I will cherish our friendship and keep you close at heart no matter where I am and I know you will be with your family looking after them, sending funny signs, because after all, that was you. We love you! R.I.P.
