

Patricia Elizabeth Alford

November 9, 1966 - December 3, 2023

Mrs. Patricia Elizabeth Alford, age 57, of Fairburn, GA passed away Sunday, December 3, 2023.

She is preceded in death by her father, J.D. Cravey. She is survived by her daughters, Michelle Stewart (William) of Cedar Town, GA, Emily Payne of Douglasville, GA; spouse, Wayne Campbell; mother, Carole Cravey; grandchildren, Sammie Stewart, Ava Stewart, Gracie Stewart, Sophia Payne and Gaige Payne.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Those wishing may sign then online guestbook at www.parrotfuneralhome.com.

Tribute Wall

“ I'm so sorry to about Pat's passing. Her pain is now over, as her family's is just beginning. Her family is in my prayers. ”

Tina Moreland - December 07, 2023 at 09:30 PM

“ Condolences to and prayers for Wayne and all of Pat's family. ”

Patti Burdette Frederick - December 07, 2023 at 06:02 PM

KB

“ Pat was one of my first friends when I moved to Palmetto. I was in the eighth and she was in the 10th grade when we met. When she started driving, we wanted so badly to be able to go, cruising in Fayetteville, but curfews kept us from this. So we devised a plan to say we were spending the night with each other so we could go hang out all night long. Funny thing is no one was really out after midnight. Leaving a very long and cold part of the night to get through. So we would go park up at the balcony parking lot of Palmetto high school. (I guess we thought it was the safest place to be until we could go home). We did that several times until we figured out there wasn't much we were missing lol! But probably the best memory was when my mom took us to the state championship game on a very cold, rainy night. Pat had snuck some cherry brandy in a thermos, and apparently got it all over herself in the process. As we pulled up to the stadium, my mom said “Pat, what kind of perfume do you have on? It smells so good“ ... Almost as if to say...”I'm onto you guys ...please be good.” (Disclaimer: there wasn't enough alcohol in that thermos to do anything but warm us up a little bit.) over the years. We have laughed so hard at that memory and soo many others!

It was an honor to call you one of my best friends... But I am so happy that you are in a better place and pain-free playing in the river of life with Jesus... I can hear your loud cackling laugh now!! You will be missed and not forgotten. So until we meet again, watch over me my friend. I love you Pat!

Kellie (Ragsdale Lively) Byrd - December 07, 2023 at 09:43 AM

KV

“ Pat your courage and positive attitude as you struggled so long are now being rewarded. You earned these wings. That sweet smile you had was so precious. You are definitely going to be missed but I know you were so happy to see Pam there to greet you. RIP 🙏

Karen Bradley Villano - December 06, 2023 at 07:36 PM