I can not even begin to express what my heart is feeling right now. Anyone blessed to know Pat would agree she was a priceless gem, always happy, loving and kind. The best kind of friend. Her laughter was contagious even until the last days. I loved her dearly. My deepest sympathy to you and the family. Judy and Mac Cloud

“ Nana was amazing and always so welcoming to all. I remember being at her house almost every weekend during the summers, swimming and spending time as a family. While we weren't blood related, she always made me feel like family.

“ Whenever I think of Patricia, the children's hymn "This Little Light of Mine" always comes to mind. Her light was bright. She was truly a pure-hearted woman.
