“ One of the sweetest ladies you'll ever meet. I was blessed to have known her and we love the entire family. She raised a good young man who became a mighty strong hero in the faith to me. Mrs. Pat was a beautiful lady all the days of her life. And now her beauty shines on in heaven. I'll see you again one day mamma. We love y'all. We're here if you need us. Tj, Jenifer Boyd and the family.

“ I loved Pat Barnes. I first got to know her at the Wednesday night pot luck suppers at Palmetto Baptist. She welcomed us by letting me know some of the most popular dishes that we would really want to try. Later as we were in the same Sunday School Class, I learned to appreciate her positive attitude and encouragement. I appreciated so many other things about her as well, but nothing more than her faithfulness and love for God and her church. I wish we could be present to show our respect but we will see Pat again and then be able to give her a big hug. Prayers sent for comfort and wonderful memories to all the family.

“ Bobby and Pat were so faithful in attendance to our "Seniors Group" at Palmetto Baptist. They were so loved and so much fun to be with. I especially remember the trips to eat. Everyone enjoyed the sweet fellowship of these two great friends. We will all miss Pat but to know she has now gained her reward of heaven and being with Jesus is a great comfort. Pat, we will see you soon. Hold us a place at the table.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Mr. Bobby and all of the family. Nothing we say can erase the loss, but we pray you might derive some measure of comfort in knowing that friends care and are lifting you up to the Lord. It was a blessing to grow up around this family, and it has been great visiting with Mr. Bobby & Mrs. Pat at Farm Bureau meetings over the past couple of decades. May God bless you in this difficult time.

“ Bobby,
You and I go back to age 6, a lifetime of memories. I double dated with you and Pat!
We all knew this time was coming and still it is a dreaded time and all will face.
You are a tough guy and a strong believer, so with these thoughts all there is left to say is God bless you and all your family, they will hold you up!
