“ To the beloved family of dear Patsy:
How do you express the extreme heartache we feel. Patsy was a song of sweetness in our lives. I will miss her calls and her beautiful sense of humour . We became so close and her weekly calls, is missed. I laughed and cried with her. I met Patsy when I was just 11 years old. Setting there in church with her beautiful hair in a twist with such beauty. She took me under her wing that day. Then fate stepped in few years later I married her cousin. Patsy and my life always crossed. I loved her dearly, John and I. You all have our sincerest sympathy, God gained a beautiful angel . Love you all.
