

Paul Knox Hagan Jr.

May 24, 1938 - September 9, 2025

Paul Knox Hagan Jr., born on May 24, 1938, passed away on September 9, 2025, at the age of 87. Paul dedicated his professional life to the field of toxicology, where he made significant contributions by establishing his own company called Drug Free Works Associates.

A man deeply committed to his faith, Paul was very involved with his church, where he was known for his unwavering dedication and service to his community.

Paul was preceded in death by his loving wife, Elizabeth Hagan, his parents, Paul Hagan Sr. and Cathryn Hagan, and his children, Tamela Hagan and Mark Hagan; his brother, Bradley Hagan . He also mourned the loss of his grandson, Aaron Bailey.

He is survived by his son, Paul Hagan III. His legacy continues through his grandson, Jake (Shannon) Bailey, and his eight beloved great-grandchildren. He also leaves behind his niece, Cathryn (John) Brady, and nephew, Anthony Hagan, as well as his niece, Sandy (Richard) Pope. Extended family includes his great-nephew, Jack Brady, his great-nieces, McKenzie (Khaine) Cooper and Caitlin Hagan, his great-great-nephews, Raiden Cooper and Caleb DeWitt; great great nephew, Van Hagan.

Paul will be remembered for his commitment to his family, faith, and profession. His presence will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved him.

Tribute Wall

“ Ronald Gilliam lit a candle in memory of Paul Knox Hagan Jr.

Ronald Gilliam - September 26, 2025 at 04:59 PM

PI

“ Paul Hagan III lit a candle in memory of Paul Knox Hagan Jr.

Paul Hagan III - September 17, 2025 at 10:15 PM

Hi Paul, this is Ron Gilliam, who lived on Fernwood Circle. I am so sorry for your loss. The last time I talked to your brother Mark was around 2002 or 2003. Take care!

Ronald Gilliam - September 26, 2025 at 05:19 PM