Beyond his professional life, Paul was a man of deep faith who loved the Lord and was a Godly man. His kindness and warmth extended to all who knew him, making him a trusted friend and a cherished companion.

Paul had a profound love for animals, particularly dogs and horses, which brought him great joy throughout his life. An avid outdoorsman, he enjoyed sports, hunting, and golf, finding peace and happiness in nature's embrace.

Paul is preceded in death by his parents, Jack R. and Opal Peavy, and his brother, Phillip Peavy. He leaves behind a loving family who will forever cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Dawn Peavy; his children, Paul Daniel "Danny" Peavy (Amber), Michael Anthony Peavy (Debbie), and Megan Marie Peavy; his sisters, Deborah Jones (Richard) and Elaine Corbin (Jesse); seven grandchildren; and one great-grandchild. “ Paul was one of the kindest men I've ever met. Even the last time I saw him he offered to go pick up mom and bring her to church. He was indeed a Christian gentleman. It was a great honor to get to know him. God bless you all as you move into the coming days/weeks. He leaves a legacy for sure.

“ Paul was a dear friend and neighbor, always friendly, never a cross word about anyone. Waving from the front porch or stopping to chat about the good old days when he worked with my brothers and dad. We became their neighbors 20 years ago when he told us they paved the road. Of course you always take for granted that you'll have so much more time to visit till you don't. 💔
But, always have great memories of such a selfless caring friend 😊
🙏💔💔 Love and Miss you💔
