“ Im truly sorry to hear of your loss. Rest assured God cares and understands any hurt you may be going through. Take comfort in knowing that God will soon end all human suffering and death for good. May the many memories, along with Gods help, guide you through the days ahead.-Revelation 21:4, Isaiah 25:8.

“ To the Carpenter family:

I am very sorry about your loss. Losing a loved one is distressing because we naturally want to keep living happily with our family and friends. (Ecclesiastes 3:11) It is comforting to know that God cares about us and knows what it is like to lose a loved one. (1 Peter 5:7) Thankfully, God has promised to change conditions on earth and in humans so that very soon we will be able to enjoy life forever, without ever again having to experience sickness, pain, sadness, or death. (Romans 5:21; Revelation 21:3, 4) He has also provided a sure hope that we will be able to see our loved ones alive and well again. (John 5:28, 29)

May you have comfort and peace during this difficult time.

“ Dear Kenneth, Kennette and Danielle, my heart goes out to you all after hearing of your tremendous loss.

I remember Pauline so well on our trips to Atlanta with the kids many years ago and how sweet and kind she was catering to such a crowd of us. She was a very special lady that will be missed but I know she is happy right now to be with the Lord.

God bless,

Mary (formerly Sebastian)

“ Dear Ken, Kennett and Danielle,

We were very sorry to learn of Mrs. Pauline departure. I'm sure that there was a Great Celebration there in HEAVEN when the word spread that she had arrived HOME!
She was a very special Lady in Our Hearts, and will be deeply missed by all those who knew her as we have. But at least we still have you folks, and we will all be reunited with her and all of our loved one in the FUTURE.
May Jesus Strengthen you, Doug, Carol & Cassie Jones
