I am a waterfall of endless tears right now. So many beautiful pictures I have never seen. What a beautiful tribute to my Aunt Peggy. I know in my heart and my mind that she has gone on but seeing this tribute has really hit it home. I miss hugging her and talking to her so much! Every time I've been to Atlanta lately has been to spend time with my Aunt Peggy. It's really hard to know I can't pick up the phone and talk to her again. Sending out heartfelt prayers to all.

“ I am a distant cousin. I never had the pleasure of knowing Peggy. I have been researching the Bennett family tree & ran across this obituary. My grandmother was Julia Caroline (Callie) Bennett Camp. William Broadus Bennett was her nephew. Please accept my sincere sympathy. Jan Camp Warren, Canton, Georgia

“Tears and heartache for the loss of my friend I've known the longest, since we were both in our 20s. Peggy was my "guardian angel" at a time when I most needed one. Tremendous sense of humor, loving, kindhearted and generous, I am honored to have had Peggy in my life, despite long periods of being out-of-touch. We sort of came in and out of each other's lives, and by a fluke a few years ago we (again) found each other. In these last couple of months, conversations in our daily telephone visits overcame any obstacle of distance and decades. Already, Peggy, I miss you all over again. You will always be my very best friend. Tears, joy in memories, sadness at losing you, and my privilege to have known you, remembered forever. --Anna M. Soria (Georgetown, Massachusetts)

“ Peggy was the most fun, nice and out going person. She was Always camera ready. I took after her in that way. We loved catching memories and we have a lot stacked up. I will miss her laugh.

Love you Peggy
