“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I too know the sting of death. The memories of good times will carry you thru these sad days. I hope that you can surround yourself with family and those who can build you up with the comfort you need. There is the best support found in God's word. Please read Isaiah 25:8. Death will soon be a thing of the past and there will be no more tears. Take care of yourself and let the scriptures fill you with hope and promise.

“ Absolutely love this precious soul, as did everyone who had the privilege of knowing her. "Mom Peg" loved Jesus, along with everyone and everything He created. Her family and friends, Bart, her beloved cat, were dear to her heart and often the topic of conversation. Mom Peg's zest for life and adventure was contagious, always happy and cheerful, caring and compassionate, kindness to all. Sunsets at Marco Island (Welcome to Paradise!) were anticipated with optimism and celebrated with cheer! Oh how she loved to walk the beach and find kitty paw shells, each one bringing a big smile of joy and satisfaction. 2 Timothy 4:7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. We'll be together again one day, in Paradise.
