Such a wonderful slide show. AND what strong family genes you guys share! The pictures of Patti and Ken (Paul) as kids made me smile, took me right back to the old neighborhood. Prayers for your family as you begin to navigate life without your sweet Momma. BIG HUGS!

“ My Aunt Peggy, from the time I can remember I always loved you and looked forward and enjoyed anytime we visited y'all. You were the reason we had so many family get-togethers. You put so much time and love into all of our reunions, Christmas Eve parties, birthdays... I have nothing but great memories of all those times. When I went into the military & afterwards when I moved away & got married, you & Uncle Buck always came to visit me when I came home to GA. You always cared, you always made me feel loved & missed & special. I'm thankful to be loved by you & thankful you knew I love you. Until we meet again... ❤️

“ All I can say now "she can never be replaced" and she will always be carried in my heart forever. Even though she was my mother- n-law, I never referred to her as Peggy,she will always be Mimo to me.I love you and miss you Mimo.

“ Peggy’s mother and my dad were cousins. We grew up, as neighbors in Stonewall. She was good friends of my brother’s. In fact she and my brother were voted, “best all around”, their senior year, in high school. Always loved seeing her, she was beautiful inside and out.

“ Kenneth and the Nestlehutt family, I was so sad to get the word from Shirley today of Peggy’s passing.

Work brought us together. Among my happiest years of working at Delta Air Lines, were those when Peggy decided to come out of retirement from Del Monte, and join us at Delta for another 10 years before retiring with a 2nd career! She had such a strong work ethic. I was fortunate to work closely with her all 10 of those years. Not only did I come to appreciate her strong work ethic, but she had a deep love of her entire family that I learned about as well. I enjoyed her telling about many of your fun family times and gatherings involving your children and grandchildren. I learned grief was no stranger to your family, but she also embraced the good times you all created together. She loved you all dearly. I hope all those memories you made and share together, might offer a bit of comfort in the coming days and weeks.

Peggy was a good listener. I shared with her a special, but personal story and a connection I have with gardenias. I love them. And so one year for a “significant” birthday, she managed to bring a rather large gardenia bush to work, and somehow keep alive in her vehicle, until the end of the day when I followed her to her car and retrieved it much to my surprise, and she said “Happy Birthday!” I’m always reminded of Peggy’s thoughtfulness when it blooms each summer, and a couple more times during the year when it randomly offers up some bonus blooms. -Of course it would bloom a couple extra times a year, that’s “so Peggy” always going the extra mile! ♡♡

Peggy was a WONDERFUL cook! She baked and brought into work, the most delicious treats, and covered dishes for the MANY office parties we were known for having in our department. I was always asking her for her recipes. (I think we all did.) And she always shared. Soooo, another birthday rolled around, and she printed out on individual cards, 400 or so of her favorite recipes, and gave them to me in a very special wooden box! I’m not sure which better represented her “labor of love” she had to tackle: typing up and printing out all all those cards? Or shopping all over Atlanta for the right size box to house the cards she had printed out! She enclosed a hysterically funny 1 page detailed list of her working on this project month by month, which I treasure as much as I do the recipes. My family knows, if there is ever a house fire, we are to grab: the computer password book; the large oil painting of my daughter; and Peggy’s box of recipes! If there is a kitchen in Heaven, I’m sure there will be a wonderful table prepared with everyone’s favorite “Peggy” treat ready we get there! Meanwhile, I will be making some of her recipes this week.

To know Peggy is to love Peggy. There are many more stories of Peggy quietly but thoughtfully going about just being a genuine, and kind loving person to all she knew. In 10 years of working together, you come away knowing a lot about one another. Time stands still for no one. Kenneth, you and she weren’t able to come out the last time we all got together right before Covid came through, and then the world shut down. I regret I didn’t make good on my promise to get out to see her again in person. Kenneth, you and Peggy were quite a team, an inspiration to many. I pray you take comfort in the many fond memories you both shared. God bless ❤️

“ To all the family, we are so sorry to hear of this loss and send our deepest condolences and prayers. What a beautiful lady inside and out. Mom and I have wonderful memories of being your next door neighbors so long ago. May the wonderful memories help to ease the pain of your loss. Thinking of all of you and praying. Rest In Peace 🙏❤️

Sincerely,
Barbara Weaver and Lisa Weaver

“ We only knew Peggy for a few years when they moved next door to us in Newnan but it was love at first sight and learned more of why we moved south as fast as we could from them! We have had many dinners in our home with them and our neighbors laughing and eating south and north and Italian, which she loved and so did we! We would leave for the summer and go North and she would always call or text for pictures of my grandbabies. I knew that we hit the jackpot that fall when we came home to GA and meet them the next day. I cant tell you that we loved them and it wasn't long enough, but we are great full for every day that she was there! I love you Peggy as I left her house every time and she would say and I love u!

“ She was beautiful, inside and out. The last thing we said to each other when we talked was, "I love you". I regret that I didn't spend more time with her and a glass of sweet tea. Butterflies will always remind me of her. She said they always made her feel closer to Clint and now he's in her arms. Karen

“ To read this obituary this morning for Peggy Nestlehutt was One of the saddest things I have ever had to do. Peggy was a wonderful friend and I know that she loved our Lord and served Him daily. To every member of her family I don't know what I can do; I don't know what I can say; but one thing is for sure I can pray. And each one of you have been and will continue to be in my prayers. We will all miss just having Peggy to call on the phone and talk to any time we want to. But we all know that we will someday be able to talk with her because she is already with the Lord and waiting for us to be there.

“ "Mimo" was the grandmother I never got to have. She made me feel like part of her family and accepted me like I was her own. Heaven gained one of the most loving, genuine, wonderful people I have ever known.
