“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. When we lose a loved one we all need comfort . Because in the Bible at [1 Corinthians 15 : 26] death is describe as "the last enemy " and it shall be destroyed. It breaks into our lives often completely unprepared. May your family and friends and your precious memories carry you through these difficult days ahead. Jesus assures us at [John 5 : 28-29] "the hour is coming which all those in the graves will hear his voice and come forth. Yes our hearts will rejoice as we welcome our loved ones back on a paradise earth! This may not completely take away your grief. .If you would welcome more on how to cope with grief or God's promises

“ I have known Peggy since her sister, Betty, married by brother Charles many years ago. She was always very sweet to me and I know she loved her family. Rest in peace Peggy and may God Bless You with his love. I'm sorry I will be unable to come to the Visitation or Funeral since I'm out of town. I will be thinking of all of you.
