“ So many memories of her when I was a child

Her yard where we played tether ball was always open for us neighbor hood kids and the overnight sleep parties she always had a good snack for us . She was a awesome lady for sure !! May she Rest In Peace ❤️

“ She ALWAYS shared her home and love to all that she encountered! I will never forget Christmas 1995 when I felt I had no where to go and she called and included me in her families' celebration. She even had gifts for me. I will always be thankful for knowing Phyllis! xoxo
