“ My condolences to his family. I was unaware of his passing. He and I used to work together many moons ago in Birmingham, Al. I remember him as being sharp, energetic, and passionate about his beliefs. It's not surprising for me to see he eventually found himself in the field of law.

It was certainly a pleasure to have known him.

“ Raheem will truly be missed. He was always the light that entertained us at our class reunion events. He was always very pleasant, calm, and respectful. He adored his children and was an awesome father and friend. It has been such a blessing having you a part of my life. You were a friend for life. You were the only person who could call me by my whole name with so much flare. You will truly be missed my friend. Torey Moore Hartwell

“ Dear Family,

My deepest and sincerest sympathy are extended to you in your hour of need. Know that weeping does endure for a night, but trouble does not last always. "Ali" as we called him in law school shall remain in all of our hearts and we will keep you all in mind.

To his children,

Please hold on to what he has taught you and walk upright, knowing he will be with you in spirit.

Go in peace,

“ My God's peace surround your family at this very difficult time. Ali was an amazing guy and will be truly missed. He always knew just what to say to make someone's day brighter -and he often put his foot in his mouth too :), but was so very real and the first to say he was sorry or admit his faults-just genuine. He was so very gifted in so many things. I told him he came from "good stock" and had an old soul, he was ol' school for such a young man.

We often spoke about having the skills to transition from the Ghetto to White House - and knowing the difference between the two-he had honed this skill. Ali often fed the homeless - literally, cooking and providing for his "brothers and sisters" who were the "least of these." He was tireless and selfless. Ali's work here on earth speaks for itself. I only wish that we had more time with him! He's gone in body, but never in spirit. He leaves an incredible legacy and big shoes to fill & reminded us all of what a difference one man and his grassroots efforts can make. I'll miss you my friend, but am so very blessed for having known you!
