“Randy was an awesome guy and brother in Christ! I'll forever cherish the many times we spent together in our Emmaus Reunion Group at PTCUMC on Saturday mornings. It was a joy to watch and listen to how God was transforming Randy through Disciple-1 Bible study, following Tom Roan around Piedmont-Fayette Hospital, meeting in our small group on Saturdays, and engaging in study and prayer together. What a blessing it was to worship at Carmel UMC and see how Randy involved the children in taking the offering. Although our paths crossed a lot less as Randy became much more busy with seminary, and serving at Carmel UMC and CTCA, I thought of him often and every time my Hoosiers competed with Randy's Buckeyes. For Randy, one last time, "OH---IO!" Graham family, please know that you are in thoughts and prayers, and we love you with the love of the Lord!
