In Loving Memory of Randall Marcus Hutcheson

May 11, 1943 – December 18, 2023

Randall Marcus Hutcheson, a man of unwavering dedication and a pillar of strength for his family, bid farewell to this world on December 18, 2023, leaving behind a legacy of love, service, and cherished memories.

Born on May 11, 1943, in DeFuniak Springs, FL, Randall was the son of Adrian and Ruth Hutcheson. Growing up alongside his sister, Rebecca Jacobs (Mike), and sister Debra Tate Randall's childhood was marked by love, laughter, and the values that would shape his remarkable life.

Randall is survived by his devoted wife, Delvena Hutcheson, who stood by his side through a lifetime of shared joys and challenges. Their love was a beacon of strength for their family and an enduring testament to the bond they shared.

Randall's legacy continues through his sons, Marc Hutcheson (Lori) and Roth Hutcheson (Michelle). Their lives bear witness to the values of duty, honor, and compassion instilled by their father.

A proud grandfather, Randall found immense joy in the company of his grandchildren: Brooke Hutcheson, Will Hutcheson (Meghan), Reagan Brown (Hunter), Houston Hutcheson, McKinley Hutcheson, Colten Hutcheson, and Carter Hutcheson. His love for them was boundless, and he took great pride in their achievements.

The circle of family love extended further as Randall became a great-grandfather to Jameson Hutcheson, Collins Brown, Tanner Hutcheson and Hutch Brown. His legacy continued to flourish through the generations, leaving an indelible mark on the family he held so dear.

Randall's professional journey led him to Georgia, where he worked for Lockheed Martin before dedicating 27 years of his life to the Atlanta Fire Rescue. His career began as a driver at Station 10, known as the "Animal House," where he formed lifelong bonds with colleagues. In the last few years of his service as a firefighter, Randall continued his commitment at Station 34 until retiring in 1998. Following in Randall's footsteps, Marc, Roth, and Houston dedicated their lives to serving their community as firefighters as well.

Beyond his professional life, Randall's heart belonged to the great outdoors. Whether casting a line into the lake or ocean or navigating the woods, he found solace in fishing, hunting, and sharing his passion with others.

Predeceased by his mother, Ruth, father, Adrian, and sister, Debra, Randall's reunion with them in eternity marks the completion of a life well-lived.

May Randall Marcus Hutcheson rest in eternal peace, surrounded by the love of those who went before him, and may his memory be a source of comfort and inspiration for all who mourn his passing.

A celebration of Randall's life will be held at a later date.

“ Hutch was larger than life. He spoke and laughed and believed out loud and without hesitation, I loved that about him. He and Dell always welcomed me when I was around and loved on my son Jack in such a way that contributed to his development as a young man. I am forever in Hutch’s debt for being a part of Jack’s village.
