“ Although I did not know Randy well, as an uncle in Nancy's family I found him to be quiet, supportive of Nancy, and to love a good laugh. I will miss seeing him at family gatherings and talking with him. My prayer is that Nancy and the family will know and feel God's presence and love now and always.

“ Condolences to the O'Neal family. Randy was such a nice, gentle man with the cutest sense of humor. He and I grew up in the same neighborhood and went through elementary school and high school together. Lifting you all up in prayers for God's comfort. Connie McMillan McGinnis

“ My love and prayers to the family of this sweet, sweet man. Quiet, gentle and kind are the words that immediately come to mind when I remember Randy. My father and Hap were buddies back in the day. Randy and I shared a history class in high school. Although he sat in the back of the classroom with the "bad" boys, he was anything but bad. His quiet ways, and sweet disposition, and long(ish) red hair caught my attention. I had a secret crush on Randy, and will never forget his sweet, genuine smile. I lift you all up in prayers this early morning, for the comfort of the Lord to surround you in these difficult days. And, may a flood of joyful memories be in your heart this day. “ Caryla and I offer our sincerest Christian Sympathies and deepest Christian Love to the family of a man who was not only well loved, but well liked--and there is a difference. And it was Randy's kind, gentle, and quiet ways that made the difference. We're so grateful that we were able to see him at our last CPHS Reunion and correspond some on Facebook. May God bless and keep y'all.
