I have heard the Lord needed the best by his side and he sure got a wonderful child of his there now. Anna and Lauren and Alex, your Dad wanted us to know you and I am glad we met even for a short time when you were small. My prayers are with you all and the whole Hanson family. “ I am so saddened at Randy's passing. He was truly " a good ole boy" which in my Auburn mind is about the highest tribute one can give. Randy and I together often celebrated or lamented the performance of our Tigers. I will miss his smiling face in the Canongate pro shop. My heartfelt condolences to his family.

“ Coach Hanson taught my brothers Glenn & Eric Forsyth along with myself. He was also Eric's football coach. He loved to ask trivia questions to us in class. This particular day he asked about what president was on the bills. I answered him on every one! When he got to the $100 bill I told him Ben Franklin. He thought he was going to stump me! He said ok! Then what president was he? I said not a U.S. PRESIDENT but the 1st president of a electric company! He smiled and asked how did I know that? I grinned and said I watched Little House on the Prairie last night too! He laughed! He will be missed!

“ Randy was my first friend after moving half a state away from home to begin my teaching career. He was there during some of the lowest times of my life. He drove me to Rome the night in 1982 when I lost my brother, He was there when I lost my daughter in 97. Likewise he was involved in the good times too. He and Anna nudged me to go on the first blind date in my life with the lady I'd marry a year later. He and Arlin taught me how to be a successful coach and what it takes to be a winner. I enjoyed all of those rounds of golf...never could beat him...I even got to visit his mom in Auburn. He influenced so many lives. I will miss my friend. It just doesn't seem real that he's gone. Until we meet again....
