R.i.H. Chief Ellington... I remember in recruit class he would say "Alright get out your rope". I was also his Chief Aide on Battalion 7 at the airport.

“ I remember Raymond living on Rosedale Ave in the 1940s - 50s. A group of us neighborhood boys used to visit him and watch cartoons at his house. Good times. v/r Dr. Robert (Dr. Bob) Stephens, currently residing in Hawaii.

“ My sympathies to Jeannie and to all of the family in the passing of my very dear friend. Ray was always so good to me - always wanting to buy my lunch when we all went out to eat, always offering to help me if there was anything I needed. I will miss him so much. Rest in peace!

“ Raymond was a great Roosevelt High classmate. God's peace to all the family. I never remember seeing him without a smile and a kind word.

Sincerely,

Ron (Ronnie) Plunkett, RHS, '60..
