“ We remember when Raymond was our Deacon from Flat Creek, he came to visit us. Our girl's fish had died and we were in the process of burying it. Raymond attended the funeral and said a prayer. We will always remember his God like kindness.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with your family right now. Mr. Raymond was a great man who I had the honor to be friends with. He introduced one of my best friends to Christ, and because of his willingness to follow God's path, she accepted Christ as her savior, and her children are also servants for the Lord. What a Legacy!

“ Marcia,

I can truly say I understand what you are going through. I know your dad was very special to you! You deserve a huge gold star for all the help you've given to your parents over the last few years. I hope that you can be assured of this and know that he's in a good place now! Please call me if you would like to chat. I can share how I've managed the sorrow of losing my dad.
