“ It was certainly my pleasure to have known and worked with Raymond years ago. Like I told Sarah tonight, Raymond was one who made work fun. He will be fondly remembered for that smile and his sense of humor. I know his family is blessed with many happy memories.

“ Sara, may God comfort you and your family during this stressful and sad time.
Raymond and I go back a long time -- Central Park grade school, Russell HS and Ga Tech. He and I commuted daily to Ga Tech and were the best of friends. He was a kind and generous individual and one that was a pleasure to be around. I will miss his e-mails. We had a running debate as to who sent the worst e-mails. I think Raymond won.
I will miss them. God bless you Rainbow.

“ I am so sorry to read about your loss. Death is not something we ever get used to. We can draw comfort from the promises that god gives us. He promises to soon do away with death and pain and will even make it possible to see our dear loved ones again. We all await these promises.- Revelation 21:3,4; Acts 24:152
