“ Im so sorry to hear about your loss. God knows and understands what we may be feeling. He soon promises to put an end to all death and pain for good. As we await these promises, may you continue to strengthen one another in your time of need.-Revelation 21:4, Isaiah 25:8.

“ To the Montano family:

I am very sorry about your loss. Losing a loved one is distressing because we naturally want to keep living happily with our family and friends. (Ecclesiastes 3:11) It is comforting to know that God cares about us and knows what it is like to lose a loved one. (1 Peter 5:7) Thankfully, God has promised to change conditions on earth and in humans so that very soon we will be able to enjoy life forever, without ever again having to experience sickness, pain, sadness, or death. (Romans 5:21; Revelation 21:3, 4) He has also provided a sure hope that we will be able to see our loved ones alive and well again. (John 5:28, 29)

May you have comfort and peace during this difficult time.

“ Becky I will miss you, but I know you are at peace and with our Lord. How great is that!!! You are dancing and singing. I remember the good times we had at the lake, acting crazy and having fun....good clean fun. I know one day I will see you again soon and when that time comes I want you there to greet me and we will go dancing in together. I love you Becky and you will remain in my heart forever. Love your other sister LOL.....Alisha

“ God's comfort nd peace , Jesus sends to all in times such as this. God's hand there to hold on to, and him you can lean. Not understanding all the decisions made by him, we know He is in control and looks out for all of our best. May you find comfort in knowing there is coming a reunion day soon.
