

Rebia Stamper York

April 22, 1919 - July 7, 2015

Biography

Rebia Stamper York, age 96, of Fairburn (formerly of Marietta) passed away

July 7, 2015. She was born in Ball Ground, Ga. to John B. and Martha Jordan Stamper and was the youngest of their eight children. At a young age she moved to Marietta, Ga. where she lived for most of her life.

Rebia was a 1937 graduate of Macland High School (now McEachern High School). She attended business school before marrying her life-long love, George Ray York, Jr., whom she had known since elementary school. Besides working as a church secretary, she enjoyed cooking for her family and sewing for her daughter, always putting church and family above all else. Rebia always had a love for music and spent countless hours at her daughter's music lessons, recitals, and band concerts. When she retired at age 65, she accomplished her life-long dream of taking piano lessons.

She is preceded in death by her husband of 71 ½ years, George Ray York, Jr., her parents, 6 sisters, and 2 brothers. She is survived by her loving daughter, Cheryl York Bedwell and her husband Carl of Fairburn and many nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank Senior Helpers of Peachtree City as well as her three wonderful caregivers; Helene Beulteman, Kaneshia Overton, and Drusilla Fowler for their excellent and loving care during her long illness. Ms. Rebia will be missed by her daughter, son-in-law and all who knew her.

A graveside service will be held at 11:00 A.M. on Friday, July 10, at Mountain View Cemetery in Marietta with Rev. Buddy Waldron officiating. Those wishing may sign the online guestbook at www.parrottfuneralhome.com. Parrott Funeral Home and Crematory, 770-964-4800.

“ Dear Family,

May Jehovah God comfort you during this time of loss. Though there may be little that can be said or done to ease your pain, may you find comfort in knowing that many care and sympathize with your sadness. Always know that Jehovah God is with you to strengthen and guide you. May your trust in his promise of a resurrection bring you peace. – Acts 24:15

*Warm Regards,

“ Cheryl,

*Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your mother. You had her a long time. I fondly remember you and Carl from our days at Charles E. Riley School in Palmetto. I remarried in 2011, after my first husband passed away and we live in St. Marys, GA. God be with you during this difficult time. Sincerely,
