“ Nonnie was the epitome of grace, kindness, strength and love. She loved me and my family like her own. That was a gift I will always be grateful for. I will miss her laugh- it was the best, her bag of candy that was always full of gum, Skittles and Werther's, going to see her Christmas tree every year that she was so proud of....the list is so long. She was an amazing lady. She is forever loved and will be forever missed.

“ Renonda Sue Langley was one of my first friends. She and her family lived on Atlanta Ave, in Hapeville, Ga. Their house was 1 block from my Grandmother's. We picked blackberries together on a vacant lot between her house and my Mamas. We camped across the street from there in Emily's back yard when we were in Girl Scouts. We went to College Street Elementary School and Hapeville High School together.. We were 2 of the shortest girls in our school. 65 years goes by quickly. She was a very sweet child who grew to be a very sweet woman. Those who knew her were blessed.
