“ im the first born of Richard . My daddy loved everyone. My daddy had a sweet spirt about him he never meet a stranger. If you came to his house it's like had to give you something or needed something to eat or place to stay you came to the right place he didn't turn anyone away. Daddy you was always my hero . Polly

“ *I have tried to search and reach the words to write but it has been truly hard. This feeling I feel is so unreal. My heart longs to hear you say my name so we could look at each other and laugh. Your eyes sparkle when you laughed your laughter was music to my ears. You are a great man of faith and dedication to you family and friends. I have learned so much from you. I love you Daddy and thank you for loving me when I failed you and myself. Thank you for helping up and dusting me off and would tell me to try again. I am thankful that the Lord designed you to be my Daddy. You was a perfect mold. I love you so much and I'm going to miss you. Love your baby girl,
Nancy*

“ My thought and prayers goes out to you all. Uncle Richard is in a much better place then we are and his earthly body will no longer hold him back. His pain is forever gone now. I know Heaven got a lot more laughter when he joined his heavenly family members. My love to you all. His laughter will be missed. Love you ...Jackie, Travis

“ As a child I remember his smile because it would always make me feel like no matter what everything was going to be ok. My funny times was when I would be telling him something or really anyone he would change the sentence around to something else that had nothing to do with what I said. Then he would laugh with that silly smile. Like what's wrong. He will forever hold a special place in my heart. I love you uncle Richard
