“ *Rich,
May the gentle touch you feel on your cheek be from those who love you.
May a comforting gentle breeze always be at your back.
May your journey be peaceful and calm.
May the faces you see on the distant shore all look familiar.
Rest in peace my brother.
You are missed!

“ The first time I met Richard we were traveling and stop by his house. It was Easter weekend and I remember in the evening we all played table games and had so much fun the next morning we all went to breakfast and he made us Easter baskets .I thought that was so awesome he did that. I thought how blessed I am to have such a wonderful brother in law. There were more great memories of him . I will always have great memories of this great man, father,grandfather, brother and brother in law. I will forever miss you but I think I know you will always be close to us all. Rest in piece dear man.
