Robbin Lynn Iddins

May 22, 1957 – November 27, 2024

It is with a heavy heart that we announce the passing of Robbin Lynn Iddins on November 27, 2024, at the age of 67. Born at Emory University Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia, Robbin grew up in East Point, Georgia. She proudly served in the Navy and later worked at UPS for nearly 30 years, where she made her mark as a dedicated leader.

Robbin shared a loving 40-year partnership with her wife, Becky Rivas. The couple officially married in 2015 in Daytona Beach, Florida. She was passionate about adventure, enjoying bicycling, camping, and memorable trips, including a motorcycle journey from Atlanta to Maine. A devoted sports fan, Robbin was an avid sports lover and enjoyed watching soccer, college football, and basketball.

During the late 1990s and early 2000s, she served as a youth counsellor at St. John's Church in College Park, Georgia. She also had a deep love for animals and was a proud "fur mama" to Loki, Milo, Luna, and Sammy.

Robbin is survived by her father, Caleb; her sisters, Dawn and Cindy; and a loving extended family of cousins, nieces, nephews, stepchildren, and stepgrandchildren. She was predeceased by her mother, Virginia, and her brother, David.

A graveside service will be held at Forest Lawn in College Park, Georgia, on December 4th at 11 a.m. In place of flowers, donations may be made to a charity of your choice in Robbin's honor.
