“ Dear Michele, Bernadette and family I am so very sorry about Bob’s passing. I have known Michele since June of 1996 and gotten to “know” Bob since I heard so many wonderful stories about him. I was impressed about how he taught her car mechanics as a child which was practical knowledge for a young lady to have. I could tell how close she was to her father like I was so we had a camaraderie in that respect. I used to love to hear about his love of NASCAR and how all of you attended so many races. Bob has been such a fighter ever since his horrific car accident a few years ago but he battled back from that and also through his cancer journey. God bless each and every one of you as you navigate through this sad time. I believe he will be a guardian angel to all of you along with Michael.

“ It was a honor to have meet Bob and was able to work on the same crew together at Eastern Airlines. Bob as well as myself loved working and spending our time together with people we got to know while at Eastern. Bob along with me and many others loved Eastern like family. Sending prayers for the whole family and Bob, he will be truly missed. Ray Swann
