“ Robert S Andrews was my friend. He and I shared many stories and laughs together. Barbara, my wife, and I played Mexican Train with both Bobbie and Jewell almost every weekend with Bobbie making the best coffee ever made. If you didn't believe the coffee was the best Bobbie would tell you why it was. Both of us agreed that life is short so you need not take life so seriously. Do not feel sorry for Bobbie being gone since he is in a place now so great that there are no words to describe it. I'm not sure who had the biggest smile on their face when Bobbie reached heaven Jesus or Bobbie. That's a moment worth seeing. He is now with his loved ones and waiting for the rest to join him. I for one can count those who were truly my friends, Bobbie was first on my list. Till we meet again my friend.

“ I was lucky enough to call Bobby Andrews both my Granddad and my first best friend. He was an infinitely charming and loving man, who always had an unmistakable twinkle in his eye, unbelievably firm handshake and an anecdote or remembrance at the ready to share. It seemed to me he possessed a bit of magic and had a preternatural way of making everything fun, no matter how mundane or boring. When I was a young child, he'd take us on little adventures together - just the two of us - he at the helm, smiling and humming a tune all his own, with me by his side, as he drove us along. As a child it struck me how he as an adult was having just as much fun as I was, with little care or effort in concealing it. Both of us yammering away about this and that, with no care about the final destination or how long it takes to get there, just enjoying the ride. Bobby was my hero, loving husband to Jewell, a strong family man, a warm and gentle soul, whose love and heart knew no bounds. With his passing, the world grew a little colder, Heaven a little brighter, yet we're all that much richer for knowing him. I will forever love and miss him. Rest In Peace, Bobby Granddaddy (or GreatDaddy, etc.)

“ I think God for allowing my family to be part of this amazing man and his family. Children went to school together, Daughter Kathy and I taught Sunday school, and Kathy's daddy became Father to us all. We all spent vacations together and Bobby and Jewell kept all of us under control. We enjoyed having Bobby around with his many memories, believe me there were lots; and they never stopped. And his love for his God was so obvious. I know all his angels in heaven are around him now listening now. RIP Bobby, you deserve it. Love and will miss you, Pam and Ferrell Shirah
