“ My condolences to the Kay family. When I was a little girl living on Stonewall Tell Rd they were our neighbors. I loved seeing the pictures of Bobby's Mom and Dad. I especially loved the picture of the softball team. My Granddaddy Green would take us to watch the " Kay" boys play ball. Bobby was a good Christian man and will be by many. Praying for the family.

“ I leave prayers and heartfelt sympathy for family. Thankful for the life and testimony Bobby has left. My memory of Bobby is as a faithful member of Campbellton Baptist Church, my Sunday School teacher, softball coach, and singing at church. Song I most remember is "Jesus Use Me". I'm thankful God did use him to plant seeds of faith in my growing up years!
