“ We think the first time we met Bob was at a "cousin" dinner at Red Lobster several years ago. Kent and Bob recognized each other from the streets of Fairburn and spent the rest of the evening sharing stories. I could tell he was a wonderful addition to Betty and Emily.

However, my most memorable time was when we had a bunch of the "cousins" to my house for Jim's surprise birthday a few years ago. He amazed my granddaughter, Vivian, with a couple of magic tricks - she wanted to learn how to do magic too. So Kent got a magic kit and helped Vivian figure out how to be a "magic man" like Bob.

Thank you, Bob, for the smiles and happiness you brought to others.
