“ I first met Bob Garber in 1998. I was employed at Fairburn Printers as a Graphic Designer. He was my first regular customer. That early relationship grew into regular small jobs for Bob. I helped him with his DVD business, printing and his autobiography. He was always professional and cheerful.

But the real joy of knowing Bob was his advice about "Showbiz".

I've learned some valuable lessons for my own small charity act. His advice for hecklers: "Never hesitate or seem like you don't know what to do next...that's when the audience will pounce on you!"

Magic and a song. That was Bob. I am very happy to know him and remember him.

God, I hope I face death as strong as he was. Tough guy.

Thank you Bob!

“Dad, you will be greatly missed. We both wasted the time we could of had together and I will forever be sorry for that. I learned more about you in the last few months, than in my entire life. You have left a lasting impression on my life. You were so charismatic and good natured even when you didn't feel well. I believe you are in God's hands and are at peace, which gives me great comfort. Until we meet again, know that I love you.
